Warhawk Fact Sheet

Warhawk is a popular music ensemble of the United States Air Force Band of the West. This group, stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas, was formed in 2003 and consists of highly-skilled professional musicians from all over the United States. Warhawk travels over 30,000 miles each year and performs throughout Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, and Louisiana.

Warhawk is the USAF Band of the West's response to America's demand for classic rock 'n' roll, traditional country, and current pop music heard on top 40's radio stations. They perform songs from artists like Michelle Branch, Brooks & Dunn, Creed, and Shania Twain.

Warhawk performs a variety of music for dances, background music for receptions, and even special music for thematic shows, in support of official military gatherings, Air Force recruiting, and community relations events.
